

Are you awake now or consumed
By a fake clown?
World Wide Web keep the spiders fed
Looking at my feed
Trolls everywhere but knowledge supersedes
At your fingertips
Clicking all the keys to the locks

Now you're on the clock not a second to lose
Like your life shorter
Addicted to a platform
It's the calm before the storm (Get at me)
If the grid goes down you better be ready
Emotional effects may be deadly
Masses to run steady
The depression hit's like a Tyson blow
Isolation on another level
Who's responsible? I don't know
I gotta theory if you hear me
But you wanna fear me
Dumb us down then divide us
Up I see it clearly
Pit one against the other
Even though we're brothers
Make us hate each other while
They keep their asses covered
What you gonna do when the grid goes down?
Socially engineered anarchy induced chaos
That's how they go play us
One against the other
Him against his brother fuck one another
Ahhh but Uncle Jam's Army is here
What you gonna do? (Whatever it takes)
What you gonna do?
(Whatever the party call for)
Socially engineered anarchy induced chaos
That's how they go play us
What you gonna do when the grid goes down?
No sound around on no
To get it on (Cot said w)
My style versat'y're after
Which is why thack
And they on my

Lookin' over my shoulder, seein' what I write
Hear what I say, then wonderin' on why
Why they can't ever compete on my level
Underground status is my domain
Understand my rhythm, my pattern of lecture
And you know why I'm on a switch
This of events results in a vocal pitch
It's the movement of my haunted front
It eliminates pressure on the go down
But the pos is around so I got to Plus employ tactics so coy
And have no choice but to destroy
Gove men tricks and what they say
It's a that to cross my way get down
What you gonna do, Chuck?
Flava you still lampin'?
What you gonna do when the grid goes down?
That's how you feel about it?
Uncle Jam's Army is here
Socially engineered anarchy induced chaos
That's how they go play us?
One against the other
Him against his brother
Girl against her mother
What you gonna do when the grid go down?
No sound around
